Suburban Hospital Receives Check

Richard Ruprecht, President of the Kiwanis Club of Bethesda Foundation presents check to Jamie Borns, Nurse Navigator with Suburban Hospital/Johns Hopkins Breast Program and Terri Kerner®, Coordinator, Donor Relations & Information Suburban Hospital Foundation looks on.

SPEAKER: Terri Kerner introduced Jaimie Borns who has been with Suburban Hospital since 1982. Breast cancer is the most Common cancer diagnosed in women. Statistics show that over 230,000 new cases of invasive breast cancer are diagnosed each year. There are over 2.5 million breast cancer survivors in the U.S. Montgomery County's breast cancer incidence rate is higher than the overall rate for the state of Maryland. A cancer diagnosis can be overwhelming and the nurse navigator can assist patients and families. The navigator provides the tools and support that breast cancer patients need to fight this disease. The navigator ensures no woman is left to face breast cancer alone. Jamie said that the navigator provides one-on-one resource of information to all newly diagnosed patients. The funds received from Kiwanis will greatly aid in the implementation of the nurse navigator program at Suburban Hospital.
